

LETTER TO EDITOR - Sen. Hanger for U.S. President

State Sen. Emmett W. Hanger, Jr. was a Ft. Defiance Indian when he out maneuvered our Buffalo ^{Gap} Bison basketball team and thus squashed our hopes of seeing our high school playing in the district tournament; and he attended college on an athletic scholarship.

He worked as tax assessor ^a & a realtor and served as a caption in the Virginia Army National Guard. He was the first Republican since our Civil War reconstruction to serve ^{our} district in the Virginia Senate.

At the Staunton, Virginia, July 4th 2014 Parade, he was commended by our "Democrats for Republican Sen. Hanger" political action Committee for his attempts to secure Medicaid for poor working mothers and America's state of the art mental health coverage for us all--veterans or not, medical marijuana needy or not.

He easily won his Republican party's nomination for a 6th term on the Virginia 24th District senate seat and is virtually without a challenger for the seat in the November general election. His getting all the political affiliated voters to come together as one under his leadership was truly a coup de theatre.

Each brilliant fireworks display in the sky at night this July 4th should be seen by us as a reminder to us of Sen. Hanger's "let's work together and get thing done" political philosophy.

For instances: We should assert our being savvy at our Internet social networking and let our "Sen. Hanger for U.S. President" PAC statement go viral throughout the world so that everyone on Earth can perhaps at least feel that there is someone like Sen. Hanger out there who can perhaps make us feel like some of our lost hopes can be restored by simple working together though under the umbrella of so-called governance.
